- 2.02 Upon admission by Council, every Member shall:
- a) Have his name, address and class of membership entered in the Register; and
 - b) Be entitled to receive a Certificate from the Secretary.

Register of Members

- 2.03
- a) The Register shall be kept at the Head Office of the Institute and be open at all reasonable times to inspection by any person free of charge.
 - b) Any member who operates an office for the practice of public accounting shall annually complete an application form containing such information as Council shall prescribe and provide any other information or evidence requested by the Secretary.

Certificate of Membership

- 2.04 The Certificate shall be in such form as Council shall prescribe but shall, at least, contain the Member's name.
- 2.05 Every Member shall be, so long as he remains a Member, entitled to hold the Certificate.
- 2.06 A Certificate is the property of the Institute and, in the event of cessation of membership for any reason other than death, is recoverable on demand and shall be returned to Council.
- 2.07 In the event of suspension from membership, the Certificate shall be returned to the Council to be retained by it during the period of suspension.
- 2.08 If a Certificate is lost, destroyed or defaced, the Secretary may issue a new Certificate to the Member on payment of the fee prescribed by Council.
- 2.09 All Certificates shall be signed by the President and the Secretary and be attested by the seal of the Institute.

Classes of Membership

- 2.10
 - a) There shall be two classes of members of the Institute.
 - b) The first class of Members shall consist of all those Members who are resident or deemed to be resident in the Northwest Territories or Nunavut. A deemed resident is defined as someone who is non-resident but earns income in the Northwest Territories or Nunavut.
 - c) The second class of Members shall consist of all other Members.
- 2.11
 - a) When a Member ceases to be eligible for the class of membership in which he is registered, he shall forthwith notify the Secretary in writing, of the change;
 - b) Upon receipt of notification pursuant to Section 2.11 (a) of these Bylaws, the Secretary shall amend the Register accordingly.

Rights of Members

- 2.12 In addition to the rights and restrictions contained in the Ordinance, all Members shall have the right to:
 - a) Take part in all general activities of the Institute; and
 - b) Use all facilities established by the Institute for the promotion of its purposes, subject to such regulations and the payment of such fees as Council may prescribe.

Resignation of Member

- 2.13 Any Member, who is not in arrears for dues and provided no charge of default or misconduct against him is pending, is entitled to resign his membership by giving to the Secretary notice in writing of his intention to do so, and such resignation shall become effective at the date of acceptance by the Council.
- 2.14 Such person may be readmitted by the Council on such terms as Council determines.

Fellow of the Institute

- 2.15 a) Any Member who has rendered conspicuous services to the Institute or to the profession of Chartered Accountants may be elected as a Fellow of the Institute at a meeting of Council by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of all Councillors.
- b) Council will, upon application, admit as Fellows those members who have been elected Fellows by another Territorial or Provincial Institute as long as:
- i) that Territorial or Provincial Institute grants a similar right to our members, and
 - ii) the member retains membership in that Territorial or Provincial Institute.

Admission Fees

- 2.16 Every applicant for membership in the Institute shall pay an admission fee in such amount as Council shall from time to time prescribe.

Annual Fees

- 2.17 Every member shall pay annual fees in the amount required to be paid for the class of membership in which the Member is registered.
- 2.18 Council shall, from time to time, prescribe the amount of the annual fees required to be paid by Members in each class of membership.
- 2.19 Prior to March 31st in each year, or such later date as the Council may, from time to time, prescribe, the Secretary shall send to each Member by mail directed to the Member's address as shown on the Register, a notice setting forth the amount of annual fees required to be paid for each class of membership and stating that the amount of annual fees prescribed for his class of membership must be paid within two months from the date of the notice.
- 2.20 If the Secretary does not receive a Member's annual fees within two months from the date of the notice referred to in Section 2.19 of these Bylaws, the Secretary shall, unless otherwise instructed by Council, send to that Member, by mail directed to that Member's address as shown on the Register, a notice stating that that Member will be suspended unless the amount of annual fees prescribed for his class of membership or practicing office is paid within two weeks from the date of the notice.

- 2.21 Any Member who has not paid the amount of his annual fees prescribed for his class of membership or practicing office within two weeks from the date of the notice referred to in Section 2.20 of these Bylaws shall be deemed not to have his name entered on the Register during the period in which the Member's annual fees are in arrears. Upon payment of such fees, together with a reinstatement fee in an amount prescribed by Council, the registration of a suspended Member shall, subject to the provisions of Section 2.24 of these Bylaws, be reinstated.
- 2.22 Any person admitted to membership in the last six months of the fiscal year of the Institute shall be required to pay only one-half of the annual fees for that fiscal year.
- 2.23 Any Member of the Institute who, in the opinion of Council,
- a) has retired and ceased to engage in regular daily gainful practice of public accounting and who:
 - b) has attained the age of sixty (60) years; or
 - c) has completed thirty (30) years of continuous membership in the Institute;
- shall be exempt from the payment of annual fees.
- 2.24 Where the registration of a Member has been suspended and not reinstated within two months after the date of the suspension, the Council may cancel the registration of the Member. Such a person may be reinstated by the Council upon such terms as it approves.
- 2.25 Every practicing office shall pay annual fees in an amount prescribed by the Council.
- 2.26 The Council may, upon application to it, rescind one-half of the annual fees of any Member:
- a) who provides care on a substantially full-time basis to his child or children at least one of whom is six years of age or under at March 31; and
 - b) who does not have earnings from any employment or business in excess of an amount prescribed by the Council.
- 2.27 The Council may, upon application to it, adjust the annual fees of any Member, as follows:
- a) Any Member who is experiencing financial hardship may apply to the Council to reduce or waive the annual fees for the year. The Member must include in his/her application explanatory documentation setting out the circumstances and providing a proposed means of dealing with the situation. The reduction or waiving of the Membership Fee will be at the discretion of the Council.
 - b) Any Member who is in full time attendance at a post secondary institution may, upon application, have his/her annual fee waived. Application must be made each year.

Proof of Facts ~~Certificate of Conviction~~

- 2.28 In respect of any charge under the rules of professional conduct, an investigating committee may accept as sufficient proof of the facts and determinations stated therein:
- a) a certificate of conviction signed by the Clerk of the Court or other officer having custody of the record upon which the conviction was entered by any competent court; or
 - b) a certified copy of ~~an~~ the original information or indictment with the endorsement of a the conviction thereon signed by the official having custody thereof; ~~shall be sufficient evidence of the conviction; and,~~
 - c) a certified copy of ~~an~~ the original information or indictment with the endorsement of a the discharge thereon, signed by the official having custody thereof; ~~shall be sufficient evidence of the discharge.~~
 - d) a copy of any discipline decision and order of another provincial institute certified by that provincial institute;
 - e) a copy of any discipline decision and order of another professional organization certified by that organization; or
 - f) a copy of any settlement agreement entered into between the member and a provincial institute, professional organization or regulatory body provided it is certified by that provincial institute, professional organization or regulatory body.

SECTION 3 - MEETINGS OF THE MEMBERS

Time and Place of General Meetings

- 3.01 General Meetings of the Members shall be held at such places and on such days and times as Council shall decide provided that the Annual General Meeting of the Members shall be held within six months of the fiscal year end.

Notice of Annual General Meetings

- 3.02 At least 15 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting, the Secretary shall send to each Member by mail directed to the Member's address as shown on the Register:
- a) Notice of the Annual General Meeting, and stating the date, time and place of the meeting;
 - b) The agenda for the Annual General Meeting including details of Bylaws and amendments to Bylaws requiring confirmation at the meeting;
 - c) The report of the President;
 - d) The report of the Council;
 - e) The report of the Treasurer;
 - f) The report of the Auditor and the annual financial statements;
 - g) Such other materials as Council may direct.

Business to be Transacted at Annual General Meetings

- 3.03 Business to be transacted at Annual General Meetings shall include:
- a) Reading notice calling the meeting;
 - b) Adoption of minutes of previous meeting or meetings and dealing with unfinished business;
 - c) Election of Council;
 - d) Report of the Council;
 - e) Report of the Auditor;
 - f) Report of the President of the proceedings of the Council and of the Discipline Committee since the last Annual General Meeting;
 - g) Report of the Treasurer of the financial position of the Institute during the previous fiscal year;
 - h) New business.

Special General Meetings

- 3.04 A Special Meeting of the Institute shall be called by the Secretary:
- a) When the Council considers it expedient for the purpose of dealing with any matter relating to the affairs of the Institute;
 - b) Within 14 days of the receipt by him of a written request signed by five Members setting out the business to be discussed at the meeting; and
 - c) When required by these Bylaws.

Notice of Special General Meetings

- 3.05 At least ten days before the date of every Special General Meeting, the Secretary shall send to each Member by mail directed to the Member's address as shown on the Register:
- a) Notice of the Special General Meeting and stating the date, time and place of the meeting; and
 - b) A statement of the business to be transacted at the Special General Meeting.

Restriction on Business to be Considered at General Meetings

- 3.06 No motions to amend, repeal or vary Bylaws, other than those included in the agenda, shall be brought before the Annual General Meeting.
- 3.07 No business other than that specified in the statement sent to the Members pursuant to Section 3.05(b) of these Bylaws shall be considered at a Special General Meeting of the Members.

Quorum

- 3.08 Eight Members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all General Meetings of the Members.

Voting

- 3.09 At every General Meeting of the Members, every Member present has one vote, except where there is a mail-in vote, as provided in these Bylaws.
- 3.09.1 Where Council considers it expedient, it shall direct that any question which could be considered and voted upon at a General Meeting of the Members may be put to the Members either by attending the General Meeting in person, or by way of mail-in ballot, which ballots shall be counted at the General Meeting of the Members.
- 3.09.2 Where a mail-in ballot is directed by Council, Members must be given no less than fourteen days notice of the question or questions to be considered and voted upon at the General Meeting, and the date of the General Meeting. This notice must advise the members that they may vote on the question or questions to be considered at the General Meeting by way of mail-in ballot or by attending the General Meeting. The notice must also contain a voting paper which includes all the matter or matters to be voted upon at the General Meeting, and notice that unless the voting paper is marked and returned to the Secretary at least one day prior to the date of the General Meeting, it shall not be counted in the tabulation of votes.

- 3.09.3 At the date of the General Meeting, the Secretary shall deliver to Council all of the voting papers which have been received up to one day prior to the date of the General Meeting. Those voting papers, together with the votes of the Members present at the General Meeting, shall be counted for the purpose of determining the question or questions to be considered at the General Meeting.
- 3.10 At all General Meetings of the Members, every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the Members, unless otherwise required by these Bylaws.
- 3.11 At all General Meetings, every question shall be decided by a show of hands, unless otherwise required by these Bylaws.
- 3.12 At any General Meeting of the Members, five Members may demand that the voting on any question before the meeting be by ballot, and the President shall thereupon appoint one or more scrutineers for the purpose of taking the vote.
- 3.13 In case of a tie vote at any General Meeting of the Members, the Chairman shall have a second vote, unless otherwise required by these Bylaws.

Adjournment of Meetings

- 3.14 Any General Meeting of the Members may be adjourned from time to time by resolution of a majority of the Members present, but no business shall be transacted at any such adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

Notices

- 3.15 Anything that is required by these Bylaws to be mailed to the Members by the Secretary shall be deemed to be received by the Members on the date of mailing.

SECTION 4 - ELECTION OF COUNCIL

Eligibility

- 4.01 Any Resident Member in good standing may be nominated for election to the Council.

Nominations

- 4.02 At least 60 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting in each year, the Secretary shall send to each Member by mail directed to the Member's address as shown on the Register:

- a) One nomination paper in such form as Council shall prescribe;
- b) A notice to the effect that unless a duly completed nomination paper is returned to the Secretary at least thirty days before the date of the Annual General Meeting, it shall not be counted as a nomination.

- 4.03 Each nomination of a candidate for election to Council shall:

- a) Be signed by two Members in good standing;
- b) Have the written consent of the nominee appended thereto;
- c) Be lodged with the Secretary at least 30 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting.

- 4.04 a) At least 30 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting, the President shall appoint two Members of the Institute to be scrutineers. The scrutineers shall open the nomination papers returned to the Secretary and shall prepare a list of the names of all Members who have been nominated for election to the Council. The scrutineers shall deliver the list, as compiled, to the Secretary at least 25 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting.

- b) If the list, delivered by the scrutineers to the Secretary contains:
 - i) less than six names in total; or
 - ii) less than the name of one candidate resident in a community in the Northwest Territories other than in Yellowknife; or
 - iii) less than the name of one candidate resident in Nunavut,

the Council shall, from among the Resident Members, make the nominations necessary to make up the deficiency, and shall report the Members so nominated to the President at the Annual Meeting for election in accordance with the requirements of Section 4.07 of these Bylaws.

Voting Papers

- 4.05 The Secretary shall cause to be printed a voting paper containing the names, alphabetically arranged, and addresses of all Members nominated for election to the Council as reported to him by the scrutineers. At least 15 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting, the Secretary shall send to each Member by mail directed to the Member's address as shown on the Register:
- a) One such voting paper; and
 - b) A notice to the effect that unless the voting paper is marked and returned to the Secretary at least seven (7) days before the date of the Annual General Meeting, it shall not be counted in the tabulation of votes.

Tabulation of Votes

- 4.06
- a) Prior to the Annual General Meeting, the Secretary shall deliver to the two scrutineers all the voting papers returned to him as provided in Section 4.05(b) hereof. The two scrutineers shall count the votes indicated on such voting papers, and shall draw up a report in writing showing in alphabetical order the names of the six Members who have received the largest number of votes, and shall present such report to the President at the Annual General Meeting.
 - b) If at least one of the nominees resident in a community in the Northwest Territories other than in Yellowknife would not otherwise be included in the report, then such a nominee resident in a community in the Northwest Territories other than in Yellowknife receiving the largest number of votes shall be substituted for the nominee who ranked last on the report.
 - c) If at least one of the nominees resident in Nunavut would not otherwise be included in the report, then such a nominee resident in Nunavut receiving the largest number of votes shall be substituted for the nominee who ranked second last on the report.
 - d) For clarity, there must be a nominee who is resident in a community in the Northwest Territories other than Yellowknife and there must be a nominee who is resident in Nunavut.

Election of Council

- 4.07
- a) At the Annual General Meeting when the President shall declare the meeting ready to proceed with the election of Councillors, the two scrutineers, or any other Members, shall move and second the motion that the six Members nominated for election to the Council whose names appear on the scrutineers' report be duly elected for the ensuing year. If such motion is duly carried, the President shall thereupon declare that the six Members so named are duly elected Councillors for the ensuing year.
 - b) If such motion is not duly carried, the President shall thereupon declare the meeting open for nominations, from among the Resident Members, of six (including at least one resident of a community in the Northwest Territories other than Yellowknife and one resident in Nunavut) for election to Council and the meeting shall proceed to make nominations and, if more than six including at least one resident of a community in the Northwest Territories other than Yellowknife and at least one resident in Nunavut, are nominated, to elect by secret ballot six (including at least one resident of a community in the Northwest Territories other than Yellowknife and one resident in Nunavut) Members from those nominated.

- c) If at least one of the nominees resident in a community in the Northwest Territories other than Yellowknife would not otherwise be included in the Members elected, such nominee resident in a community in the Northwest Territories other than Yellowknife receiving the largest number of votes shall be substituted for the name of the nominee who ranked last.
- d) If at least one of the nominees resident in Nunavut would not otherwise be included in the Members elected, such nominee resident in Nunavut receiving the largest number of votes shall be substituted for the name of the nominee who ranked second last.
- e) For clarity, there must be a member elected who is resident in a community in the Northwest Territories other than Yellowknife and there must be a member elected who is resident in Nunavut.

General

- 4.08 Whenever it is necessary, in the event of an equality of votes being polled for two or more nominees at any election, the name or names of those nominees who shall be declared elected shall be decided by a drawing to be made by the scrutineers.
- 4.09 Accidental omission to give notice of nomination or voting papers to any of the members, not exceeding ten percent of the Members so entitled, shall not invalidate an Annual General Meeting or an election of Council.

SECTION 5 - THE COUNCIL

Composition

- 5.01 The Council shall consist of:
- a) One person who is not a Member, to be appointed by the Commissioner of the Northwest Territories;
 - b) Six Resident Members, at least one of whom shall be a resident of a community in the Northwest Territories other than Yellowknife and at least one of whom shall be a resident of Nunavut, shall be elected annually as provided in these Bylaws.

Removal of Councillors

- 5.02
- a) The Members may, by resolution passed by at least three-quarters of the votes cast at a General Meeting of the Members of which notice specifying the intention to pass such resolution has been given, remove any elected Councillor before the expiration of his term of office;
 - b) An elected Councillor who fails without sufficient cause, the sufficiency of which Council shall be the sole judge, to attend three successive meetings of the Council shall be deemed to have resigned.
 - c) An elected Councillor shall give notice to the Council in writing if he wishes to resign from the Council, and on the acceptance of his resignation by Council his office becomes vacant. His office shall also be immediately vacated if for any reason he ceases to be a Member of the Institute.

Vacancies on Council

- 5.03 Any vacancy which occurs, for whatever reason, among the elected Councillors, may be filled by appointment made by the Council, and such appointment shall have effect until the next Annual General Meeting.

Powers of the Council

- 5.04 The Council shall manage and conduct the affairs of the Institute and shall exercise the powers vested in it by the Act and these Bylaws.

Quorum

- 5.05 Three Councillors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the Council.

Meetings of Council

- 5.06 Meetings of the Council shall be held at such times and places as the Council shall determine, failing which the President or, in his absence, the Vice-President, shall have the right to call a meeting of the Council upon providing at least 48 hours notice of such meeting to each Councillor .
- 5.07 A resolution of the Council signed by each of the Councillors shall be as effective as a resolution passed at a meeting of the Council duly called for the purpose of passing resolutions.

Voting at Council Meetings

- 5.08 At every meeting of Council, each Councillor present has one vote.
- 5.09 Questions arising at any meeting of Council shall be decided by a majority of votes.
- 5.10 All votes at a meeting of Council shall be taken by a show of hands unless a Councillor demands that a vote be taken by ballot, in which case the vote shall be taken by ballot.
- 5.11 In case of a tie vote at a meeting of the Council, the Chairman shall have a second vote.

Remuneration and Indemnification of Councillors

- 5.12 Councillors shall not receive any remuneration for their services as Councillors but may be allowed honoraria and expenses for attending meetings of the Council and for carrying out other approved business for the Institute in such amounts as Council shall prescribe.
- 5.13 With the approval of a General Meeting of the Members, a Councillor may be indemnified and saved harmless out of the funds of the Institute for all costs, charges and expenses he sustains or incurs:
- a) In relation to the normal operation of the Institute's business; or
 - b) Through any action, lawsuit or proceeding brought against him because of anything he did or permitted to be done in the duties of his office, except where these are caused by his own wilful neglect or default.

SECTION 6 - OFFICERS

Election of Officers

- 6.01 The election of officers shall be the first order of business at the first meeting of each new Council.
- 6.02 Council shall elect as officers of the Institute from among the Councillors:
- a) A President, bi-annually;
 - b) A Vice-President, annually;
 - c) A Secretary, annually;
 - d) A Treasurer, annually.

may apply for registration as a Member pursuant to Section 2.01 of these Bylaws.

Additional Rules

- 9.24 Subject to these Bylaws, the Council may from time to time make rules and regulations with respect to educational requirements for the admission of Students, courses of instruction, examinations or the granting of exemptions there from, the requirements for writing and passing the examinations. Such rules and regulations and any amendments thereto shall be published by circulars to all Members and Students immediately after the adoption thereof and shall come into and remain in full force and effect unless and until repealed or amended by subsequent resolution of the Councillor by resolution passed by a majority of the Members present and voting at a General Meeting of the Institute.

Discipline

- 9.25 Council shall make rules setting out the disciplinary procedures applicable to Students.

SECTION 10 - PRACTICE REVIEW

Policies and Procedures

- 10.01 The Council may establish policies and procedures respecting practice reviews.
- 10.02 The Institute may publish practice review policies and procedures and provide such published policies and procedures to any chartered accountant or Student upon request.

Costs

- 10.03 The Council may assess and levy costs against a chartered accountant, including review costs and travel costs and penalty interest for late payment. The review costs will be based on the time spent conducting the review at an hourly rate established by the Council.
- 10.04 If the assessed practice review costs are not paid within sixty (60) days from the date such costs were levied, or such other period as the Council may determine, the registration of the chartered accountant shall be suspended until such time as the costs are paid. If the costs are not paid within sixty (60) days of the date of such suspension, the registration of the chartered accountant shall be cancelled.

SECTION 11 - PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE

Amount and Who Must Carry Insurance

- 11.01 Every chartered accountant or firm of chartered accountants, including a limited liability partnership, and an extra-territorial limited liability partnership, ~~an accounting professional corporation and an extra-territorial accounting professional corporation~~, carrying on the practice of public accounting in the Northwest Territories shall ensure that professional liability insurance is carried in an amount equal to the lesser of the following:
- a) $1,000,000 per incident, excluding defense costs, where one chartered accountant carries on the public accounting practice;
 - b) $1,500,000 per incident, excluding defense costs, where two or three chartered accountants carry on the public accounting practice; and
 - c) $2,000,000 per incident, excluding defense costs, where four or more chartered accountants carry on the public accounting practice.

unless otherwise determined by Council.

- 11.02 Every chartered accountant, including a limited liability partnership, and an extra-territorial limited liability partnership, an accounting professional corporation and an extra-territorial accounting professional corporation who ceases the practice of public accounting after December 31, 2007 must ensure that he or his successor carries for six years following such cessation, liability insurance in an amount of not less than $1,000,000 per incident or such lesser amount agreed to by the Council, covering professional services rendered prior to the cessation of practice by the chartered accountant and his employees.

Procedures and Policies

- 11.03 Upon registration of a practicing office prior to the commencement of practice and thereafter annually on or before June 1, every chartered accountant in charge of a practicing office shall submit to the Membership Registrar:
- a) A statutory declaration that sufficient professional liability insurance is in effect to comply with Section 11.01 of these Bylaws; and
 - b) A statement of particulars with respect to the insurance setting out the name of the insurer and the insurance policy number.
- 11.04 Every chartered accountant who has ceased the practice of public accounting after April 1st, 1994, or his successor, as the case may be, shall submit to the Membership Registrar:
- a) A statutory declaration that sufficient professional liability insurance is in effect to comply with Section 11.02 of these Bylaws; and
 - b) A statement of particulars with respect to the insurance setting out the name of the insurer and the insurance policy number.

11.05 Every chartered accountant in charge of a practicing office and every chartered accountant who has ceased the practice of public accounting after April 1st, 1994, or his successor, as the case may be, shall forthwith inform the Membership Registrar of any change in the existence and sufficiency of the professional liability insurance required under Section 11.01 and 11.02 of these Bylaws and any material changes in the particulars furnished pursuant to Sections 11.03 and 11.04 of these Bylaws including:

a) The cancellation of any professional liability insurance policy,

b) The conversion of coverage to a discovery policy,

c) A change to the amount of professional liability insurance carried if the minimum coverage required by these bylaws is no longer met, and

d) The deletion of a partner or principal insured.

11.06 Where the Institute is informed that the professional liability insurance policy of a registrant has lapsed, the chartered accountant in charge of the practicing office is required to submit to the Institute, within 10 days of a request to do so, satisfactory evidence that the required professional liability insurance has been reinstated by the same or another insurer.

11.07 In the event that:

a) the statutory declaration and statement of particulars referred to in Section 11.03, or

b) evidence of reinstatement of insurance referred to Section 11.06

of these Bylaws is not provided to the Institute within the time specified, the chartered accountant in charge of the practicing office or the chartered accountant who ceased the practice of public accounting, as the case may be, shall be suspended from membership. The suspended member may, subject to Sections 11.08 and 11.09 hereof terminate the suspension and be returned to membership in good standing by providing evidence that sufficient professional liability insurance is in effect to comply with Section 11.01 or 11.02, as the case may be, accompanied by the prescribed reinstatement fee.

11.08 In the event the person's membership suspended under Section 11.07 remains suspended for two months, the Membership Committee shall be informed and the person's membership shall be terminated.

11.09 Any person whose membership is terminated under Section 11.08 may be readmitted upon providing evidence that sufficient professional liability insurance is in effect to comply with Section 11.01 or 11.02, as the case may be, accompanied by the prescribed readmission fee.

SECTION 12 – MANDATORY CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Procedures and Policies

- 12.01 Continuing professional development, as prescribed by the Council in the continuing professional development procedures and policies, shall be completed and satisfactory proof thereof, in the form of a duly completed compliance report as prescribed by Council, shall be provided to the Institute, by every member of the Institute, except for those members who have been specifically exempted under Section 12.06 (a) below.
- 12.02 In the event that continuing professional development as required in Section 12.01 is not completed, the deficiency may be reported to the Discipline Professional Conduct Committee and the Discipline Professional Conduct Committee may exercise any of its powers under Section 7.11 of this Bylaw.
- 12.03 In the event that the compliance report required in Section 12.01 is not provided within two (2) months after the date prescribed by Council in Section 12.11~~the continuing professional development regulation~~, the member shall be suspended from membership. The suspended member may, subject to Sections 12.04 and 12.05 hereof, terminate the suspension and be returned to membership in good standing by filing the prescribed compliance report accompanied by the prescribed reinstatement fee.
- 12.04 In the event that the person whose membership has been suspended under Section 12.03 has continued to fail to provide the prescribed compliance report, accompanied by the prescribed reinstatement fee, within two months of suspension, the Membership Committee shall be informed and the person's membership shall be terminated.
- 12.05 Any person whose membership is terminated under this Bylaw may be readmitted upon filing the prescribed compliance report accompanied by the prescribed readmission fee.
- 12.06 Council may designate a committee which has the power to:
- a) hear applications from members or establish policies with respect to special circumstances which may give rise to partial or complete exemptions from the minimum continuing professional development requirements. Such circumstances may include, but are not limited to, retirement from active practice or employment, extended leaves of absence from work for medical or other reasons, financial hardship or other special circumstances as may arise from time to time;
 - b) prescribe a form of compliance report to be filed by a member;
 - c) review compliance reports submitted by members; and
 - d) require a member to produce to the committee or a member of the committee, such verification of the contents of the member's compliance report as the committee deems necessary.

Definitions

- 12.07 a) "continuing professional development" means a program of verifiable and unverifiable learning activities that provides for the development of new or existing competencies that are relevant to the overall professional responsibilities and growth of individual members.
- b) "verifiable" means that the learning activity results in some concrete measurable product.
- c) "unverifiable" means that the learning activity does not result in a concrete measurable product.

To assist members in determining whether a particular learning activity is verifiable or unverifiable, the Council, or the committee it has designated, shall publish, from time to time, a list of examples of activities that are considered to be verifiable or unverifiable.

Minimum Completion Requirements

- 12.08 Effective April 1, 2008, every member who has not been exempted from the minimum requirement pursuant to Section 12.01 shall complete minimum continuing professional development requirements, as set forth below, over a three year rolling period.
- a) each member shall complete a minimum of 120 hours of continuing professional development in each three year period, including a minimum of 60 hours of verifiable learning; and
- b) each member shall complete a minimum of 20 hours of continuing professional development annually.

Proration for Partial Year Membership

- 12.09 A member, other than a member who has been exempted under Section 12.06 (a), who is admitted to membership during the year shall be required to complete continuing professional development on a prorated basis as follows:
- a) for purposes of this Section, a partial month of membership shall be considered to be a full month of membership; and
- b) the annual minimum requirement of 20 hours shall be prorated on the basis of the number of months of membership in the current year.

Exemption for Retired Members

- 12.10 Members who are retired and/or no longer in active practice shall be exempt from the requirement for mandatory professional development.

Compliance Reporting Requirements

- 12.11 On or before the last day of March of every year, every member who has not been exempted from the requirement to complete continuing professional development, shall file a compliance report in form and content to be prescribed by Council or its designated committee, with respect to the member's continuing professional development activities during the previous year. Each member shall be responsible for identifying the continuing professional development hours to be completed and filing the prescribed form with the Institute.
- 12.12 Every member who has not been exempted from the requirement to complete continuing professional development shall retain documentation to support the verifiable learning activities that have been reported on the member's compliance form. Such documentation shall be retained for four years after the completion of any particular year and may include certificates of completion, transcripts, evidence of attendance at conferences and seminars, published work, presentations, reports or other such evidence of completion as may be available.

SECTION 14 – PROFESSIONAL CORPORATIONS [NOT IN FORCE]

Definitions

14.01 In this Section,

- a) “annual permit” means a permit as defined in the Northwest Territories Professional Corporations Act;
- b) “accounting professional corporation” or “accounting PC” or “Accounting Prof. Corp.” means a professional corporation that is:
 - i) a professional corporation defined in the Northwest Territories Professional Corporations Act, and
 - ii) registered as an accounting professional corporation with the Secretary under this Section.

Corporate Register of Professional Corporations

14.02.1 The Secretary shall maintain a corporate register of accounting professional corporations containing the following information with respect to each accounting professional corporation:

- a) the name, registered office and registration number;
- b) the names and addresses of each director;
- c) a certified copy of
 - i) the certificate of incorporation issued under subsection 268(3) of the Business Corporations Act, and
 - ii) the articles and By-laws.
- d) the names of the active members of the Institute who hold voting shares in the accounting professional corporation;
- e) the date of initial approval by the Institute of the application for registration as an accounting professional corporation;
- f) any other particulars specified by the Council.

14.02.2 An accounting professional corporation shall notify the Secretary, in writing, of any change in the particulars specified in Subsection 14.02(1) before or immediately after the change is made and submit with such notification the fee determined by the Council each year for the registration of the change.

14.02.3 The Secretary shall keep the register of accounting professional corporations at the Institute’s head office and shall make it available for inspection by any person, without fee, during regular office hours.

Registration of a Territorial Professional Corporation

- 14.03.1 In this Section, “territorial accounting professional corporation” means an accounting professional corporation which is incorporated in the Northwest Territories.
- 14.03.2 Where a professional corporation proposes to register, under section 6 of the Northwest Territories Professional Corporations Act, as a territorial accounting professional corporation, the professional corporation shall forward to the Secretary
- a) a proposed application for registration as an accounting professional corporation in Form 14-1;
 - b) the fee as determined by the Council in each year; and
 - c) any other information required by the Secretary for the purposes of this bylaw ~~rule~~ or the Act.
- 14.03.3 Where the Secretary approves of the registration of a professional corporation as a territorial accounting professional corporation, he or she shall endorse Form 14-1, forwarded under paragraph 14.03(2)(a), to state that the professional corporation is registered as a territorial accounting professional corporation.
- 14.03.4 Where a registered territorial accounting professional corporation fails to renew its permit within one year of the expiry, the Secretary shall cancel the registration of the territorial accounting professional corporation.

Registration of an Extra-Territorial Professional Corporation

- 14.04.1 In this section, “extra-territorial accounting professional corporation” means
- a) a corporation that is incorporated under the laws of a province or another territory and complies with the applicable laws of that jurisdiction pertaining to accounting professional corporations; and
 - b) is a registered extra-territorial corporation under the Northwest Territories Business Corporations Act.
- 14.04.2 Where a professional corporation proposes to register, under section 6 of the Northwest Territories Professional Corporations Act, as an extra-territorial accounting professional corporation, the professional corporation shall forward to the Secretary
- a) ~~an proposed~~ application in Form 14-2
 - b) the fee as determined by the Council in each year; and
 - c) any other information required by the Council for the purposes of this bylaw ~~rule~~.

- 14.04.3 Where the Secretary approves of the registration of a professional corporation as an extra-territorial law professional corporation, he or she shall endorse the Form 14-2, forwarded under paragraph 14.04(2)(a), to state that the professional corporation is registered as an extra-territorial accounting professional corporation.
- 14.04.4 Where a registered extra-territorial accounting professional corporation fails to renew its permit within one year of its expiry, the Secretary shall cancel the registration of the extra-territorial accounting professional corporation.
- 14.04.5 The Secretary may allow an extra-territorial accounting professional corporation to use its name as authorized in its home jurisdiction.

Corporate Name

- 14.05 An accounting professional corporation shall not use a name if that name
- a) is used by another registered accounting professional corporation holding a certificate of registration under this Section;
 - b) so nearly resembles the name of another registered accounting professional corporation holding a certificate of registration under this Section that it is likely to confuse or mislead the public.

Change of Corporate Name

- 14.06.1 An accounting professional corporation may apply to the Secretary, in a form approved by the Executive, for a certificate stating that the Institute does not object to a specific change of name for the accounting professional corporation.
- 14.06.2 An accounting professional corporation shall not apply for a change of name under the Northwest Territories Business Corporations Act unless it has been granted the certificate referred to in Subsection 14.06(1).
- 14.06.3 The Secretary shall issue a new certificate of registration to an accounting professional corporation that has
- a) obtained the certificate referred to in Subsection 14.06(1);
 - b) delivered to the Secretary a true copy of the certificate of amendment issued by the Registrar of Corporations under section 180 of the Northwest Territories Business Corporations Act, showing the change of name and the date it is effective; and
 - c) paid the fee as determined by the Council in each year.

Annual Permit

- 14.07.1 An accounting professional corporation which is registered under Section 14.03 or Section 14.04 may apply to the Secretary for an annual permit by delivering to the Secretary

- a) a completed permit application in Form 14-3;
 - b) a copy of the registration certificate issued for the professional ~~company~~ corporation under Subsection 14.03(2) or Subsection 14.04(2);
 - c) the securities register, as described under section 50 of the Northwest Territories Business Corporations Act, and
 - d) the fee as determined by the Council in each year.
- 14.07.2 The Secretary may issue an annual permit to a new professional corporation if it complies with Subsection 14.07 (1) and the Secretary is satisfied that it complies with paragraph 6(c) of the Northwest Territories Professional Corporations Act.
- 14.07.3 An annual permit may contain any terms and conditions that the Executive considers appropriate.
- 14.07.4 An annual permit expires on December 31 of the calendar year for which it was issued.
- 14.07.5 An annual permit issued to an accounting professional corporation ceases to be valid if
- a) it is revoked under Section 14.11;
 - b) a practicing accountant who is a voting shareholder in the accounting professional corporation dies or otherwise ceases to be a practicing accountant, and no provision is made in the articles of the accounting professional corporation for the immediate and automatic disposition of that accountant's shares in that case;
 - c) another accounting professional corporation that is a voting shareholder in the accounting professional corporation ceases to be registered as a company under the Northwest Territories Business Corporations Act or ceases to hold a valid annual permit and no provision is made in the articles of the accounting professional corporation for the immediate and automatic disposition of the other accounting professional corporation's shares in that case; or
 - d) it is surrendered by the accounting professional corporation to the Secretary.
- 14.07.6 The holder of an annual permit shall not carry on any activities, other than the provision of services as a chartered accountant or services directly associated with the provision of services as a chartered accountant.

Renewal of Permit

- 14.08.1 The Secretary shall send written notice to each accounting professional corporation, respecting the renewal of its annual permit.
- 14.08.2 The notice under Subsection 14.08 (1) must state that the accounting professional corporation must submit to the Secretary

- a) a completed annual permit renewal Form 14-3;
 - b) a copy of a certificate of compliance and a certificate of status issued by the Registrar of Corporations under section 271 of the Northwest Territories Business Corporations Act;
 - c) the fee as determined by the Council in each year;
 - d) any information required under Subsection 14.08(5); and
 - e) any other information that the Council may require.
- 14.08.3 An accounting professional corporation shall submit to the Secretary those items described in Subsection 14.08(2) on or before December 31 in each year.
- 14.08.4 If an accounting professional corporation fails to comply with Subsection 14.08(3)
- a) its annual permit expires on December 31 of the last year in which it is valid; and
 - b) the accounting professional corporation will no longer hold a valid permit for the purposes of paragraph 4(1)(a) of the Northwest Territories Professional Corporations Act, after December 31 of the last year in which it is valid.
- 14.08.5 The information required for annual renewal of registration must include full particulars of any change since the most recent annual permit application or renewal in
- a) the name and registered office of the accounting professional corporation
 - b) the number on the register attributed to the accounting professional corporation; and
 - c) the names of the members of the Institute who are partners in the accounting professional corporation, or who hold shares in an accounting professional corporation that is a partner in the accounting professional corporation.
- 14.08.6 The Council shall set annual renewal fees each year for the annual permit.
- 14.08.7 Where the annual permit for an accounting professional corporation expires under this Section or Section 14.07 and the accounting professional corporation wants to renew its annual permit with the Institute, the information required, the fee required and all other aspects of the application must be the same as if the accounting professional corporation had never registered with the Institute.
- 14.08.8 Where the Secretary refuses to renew an annual permit, he or she shall give written notice to the accounting professional corporation of the refusal, with reasons.

Notice of Change in Corporation Information

- 14.09 The president of an accounting professional corporation which holds a valid annual permit or his or her designate shall promptly advise the Secretary in writing of any change to the information contained in annual permit application or annual permit renewal application most recently delivered to the Institute.

Dissolution, Insolvency or Bankruptcy

- 14.10.1 Where an accounting professional corporation is to be dissolved or is insolvent or bankrupt, the members who are shareholders in the accounting professional corporation shall as soon as is reasonably practicable
- a) notify the Secretary in writing that the accounting professional corporation is insolvent or bankrupt.
 - b) deliver to the Secretary
 - i) a copy of all material filed in the proceedings dealing with the insolvency or bankruptcy;
 - ii) all information relating to any professional relationship between the accounting professional corporation and any creditor
 - iii) all information respecting any debts which arose from the accounting professional corporation's carrying on the business of providing professional services;
 - iv) the accounting professional corporation's annual permit.
- 14.10.2 After receiving the information and material required under this section, the Secretary shall
- a) revoke the registration of the accounting professional corporation; and
 - b) refer the information and material to the chairperson of the Discipline Committee for his or her attention in the case of an accounting professional corporation that is insolvent or bankrupt.

Revocation of Annual Permit

- 14.11.1 The Secretary acting under Part III of the Act, may revoke an annual permit if
- a) in the course of providing professional services the accounting professional corporation does anything that, if done by a member, would be unprofessional conduct; or
 - b) the accounting professional corporation contravenes the Act, the Northwest Territories Professional Corporations Act, the Northwest Territories Business Corporations Act or these bylaws rules.
- 14.11.2 Instead of revoking an annual permit under Subsection 14.12.1, the Secretary acting under Part III of the Act may do one or more of the following:

- a) reprimand one or more of the voting shareholders of an accounting professional corporation;
 - b) impose a fine on the accounting professional corporation, said fine to be determined by Council;
 - c) impose conditions or limitations under which the accounting professional corporation may continue to provide professional services to the public.
- 14.11.3 Any person who is a shareholder, director, officer or employee of or a contractor to an accounting professional corporation may be
- a) compelled to give evidence at a proceeding under the Act or these ~~bylaws~~ rules
 - b) required to produce any file or record in that person's possession or control that is relevant to matters raised in any proceeding under the Act or these bylaws ~~rules~~.
- 14.11.4 When the Secretary acting under Subsection 14.11.2(c) imposes a condition or limitation under which an accounting professional corporation may continue to provide professional services to the public, the Secretary may disclose to any person the fact that the condition or limitation applies and the nature of the condition of limitation.
- 14.11.5 If the Secretary discloses the existence of a condition or limitation under Subsection 14.11.4 by means of the Institute's website, the Secretary must remove the information from the website within a reasonable time after the condition or limitation ceases to be in force.

Public Disclosure of Corporate Status

- 14.12 When a member provides professional services to the public through an accounting professional corporation, all advertising for the member must indicate that the accounting professional corporation provides the professional services.

Disclosure of Corporate Information

- 14.13.1 All information and documents received by the Institute under this Section are confidential and no person is permitted to disclose them to any person, with the exception of what is contained in the corporate register under Subsection 14.02.1.
- 14.13.2 The Secretary may, on payment by a person of the appropriate fee, as determined by the Council in each year, provide copies of entries in the corporate register or a certificate of status under section 14 of the Act to that person.
- 14.13.3 As an exception to Subsection 14.13.1, the Institute may
- a) use information and documents for a purpose consistent with the Act and these bylaws ~~rules~~;
 - b) disclose information and documents to a governing body as defined in the Northwest Territories Professional Corporations Act; and

- c) disclose, on request, to any person
 - i) the name of an accounting professional corporation
 - ii) an accounting professional corporation's place of business
 - iii) whether a company has a valid annual permit and is an accounting professional corporation with the Institute.
 - iv) whether a specified accountant is an employee or a voting shareholder of an accounting professional corporation; and
 - v) whether a specified accounting professional corporation is a voting shareholder of an accounting professional corporation.

Insurance Requirements

- 14.14 Each member who is a shareholder in an accounting professional corporation must have and maintain professional liability insurance as required by Section 11 of these Bylaws.
